Mr. Marian A. Czarnecki, Chief of Staff
House Committee on International Relations
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Czarnecki:

I recently learned of your plans to leave your position as Chief of Staff of the House International Relations Committee. It is inevitable I suppose that all stalwarts in our Government will sooner or later move on to other endeavors. In the case of only a few of these however will such a move signal the end of an era. Your departure, I believe, will be one of those rare cases.

On behalf of all of us here at the Agency, I would like to express deep appreciation for the devoted service you have rendered to your country. We are particularly grateful for the highly responsible manner in which you have conducted your relations with us on the myriad of sensitive matters which have arisen over the years.

I am sure your replacement will do an outstanding job. But it is doubtful that anyone would be able to fill completely the void which your move will create.

I wish you every success in your new field of labor.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush

We recently learned from Marian Czarnecki that he plans to leave his job as Chief of Staff of the House International Relations Committee at the end of the month to take a position with IDB. His replacement will be Jack Brady with whom we have had very good relations in the past. I thought you might want to send something like the attached to Czarnecki, who has been of immeasurable help to us for a number of years.
